

Bradwell Parish Council

Procedure for Co-opting a Parish Councillor (under the Local Government Act 1972-part V)

Introduction.

Vacancies can happen on the Parish Council when a Councillor fails to complete a declaration of acceptance of office within the proper time, resigns, dies, ceases to be qualified or becomes disqualified, or fails to attend meetings for 6 months.

When this happens, the Parish Clerk notifies Milton Keynes Council, and a casual vacancy is published for 2 weeks. This is to make electors aware that they can ask for an election. At least 10 electors from the same ward should do this in writing by the deadline, and then an election is held.

If no election is called or there are still vacancies left after the election, the Parish Council has the power to fill a casual vacancy. The Parish Council will advertise the vacancy to invite 'expressions of interest', with a deadline of approximately 3 weeks, from anyone in the parish who is eligible to stand as a Parish Councillor.

Process for Co-Option

1. Return a completed and signed application form to the Parish Clerk. This includes confirmation that you are eligible and not disqualified (Local Government Act 1972 sections 79, 80).
2. This will be circulated to be considered by Parish Councillors at the next available Parish Council meeting, and you will be invited to attend the meeting.
3. Co-option will be the final item on the agenda.
4. The Chairman will invite you to speak to Councillors for 2-3 minutes, you may be asked some follow up questions.
5. A debate and then a vote will take place on your nomination, which must achieve a majority vote. You will be told the outcome immediately.
6. The successful candidate sign a declaration of public office and declaration of pecuniary interests for holders of public office. Once signed, candidates become Councillors with the right to vote at the following meeting.
7. The Parish Clerk notifies Bradwell Parish Council of the appointment and submits the information required for the register of interests.

Point of Contact:

Please contact the Parish Clerk to chat through any questions or concerns that you have, and for all the steps in the co-option process. He can also put you in touch with a Parish Councillor to give you their views on what it means to be a Parish Councillor, if you would find that helpful.
